

Kids with character

Akron
Children's Hospital

Rachel Ray, an 8th grader at Sacred Heart of Mary School, demonstrates the character pillar of caring in her daily life. Rachel takes field trips to play bingo with the residents of St. John's Hospice in Louisville every month. Rachel also demonstrates good character by standing up for others at school. She is responsible, fair and respectful of herself, as well as her fellow students and teachers. Rachel is always willing to help if something needs done in the classroom. She always has a smile for everyone she meets and a genuine air about her that shows she cares. Her participation in 4H has won Rachel an award for showmanship in poultry this past year.

Thank you Rachel, for being such a caring person.
