

Kids with character

Akron
Children's Hospital

This recognition showcases students ages 9-18 who have made a difference by accepting responsibility, showing kindness, valuing others concerns, helping resolve conflicts and honoring their commitments.

Hayle Fisher, a 5th grader at Ella Canavan Elementary School in Medina County, has demonstrated the character pillars of responsibility and caring. At school, Hayle is a book buddy to a kindergarten student. She also mentors special-needs students by reading to them and helping them with their schoolwork. Hayle has been elected head of the crossing guards. For her birthday, she requested that she not receive any gifts, but that her guests bring canned goods to be donated to the local food bank. She collected three grocery bags full of food that was donated to the Medina Soup Kitchen. Hayle also has been Student of the Year and has received a scholarship for Violin Camp at Baldwin Wallace College. She plays first violin in the school orchestra and is in the drama club.

Thank you Hayle, for showing such care and concern for others.

Hayle
