Kerry

Kerry Tuttle is a seventh grader at Nordonia Middle School. Kerry demonstrates the character pillars of responsibility and respect. Kerry has excelled academically and has achieved the status of High Honor Roll all three grading periods this school year. Kerry was rewarded for having all of her in-class and homework assignments completed on time. She is a member of Student Council as well as the volleyball and basketball teams. She not only started on both teams, but also was named MVP of the 7th grade volleyball team. She is respected by both her coaches and her teammates. Kerry is a member of the Power of the Pen Writing Team and qualified for the State Tournament that was held at the College of Wooster this past May.

Thank you Kerry for being such a responsible citizen.
