Clay

Clay Otto, a sixth grader at Tallmadge Middle School has demonstrated the character pillar of citizenship. Clay is one of several students involved in the Tallmadge Bicentennial Committee at school. The committee is planning several activities that will involve students in the city's bicentennial celebration during 2007. Clay also is involved in basketball and baseball and is a straight "A" student. He is helpful, cheerful, and personable. He gets along very well with his peers.

Thank you Clay, for being such a good citizen.
