Felicia

Felicia Franze, a 5th grader at St. Joseph Elementary School in Mogadore, has demonstrated caring, responsibility and citizenship. Felicia shows responsibility by taking care of her horses, chickens, rabbits and dog. Felicia is a member of the 4-H club and the Mustangs. She showed her horse for the first time this year at the Randolph Fair, where she won many awards. Felicia also helps her grandmother at the Food Shelf; a food pantry at St. Joseph's Parrish. Felicia helps package the food and carry it out to the cars of people who need it. She also has made gifts for the children in the cancer unit at Akron Children's Hospital. Felicia purchased books for the Ronald McDonald House and asked her classmates to make bookmarks. Felicia also is a straight-A student, plays guitar and takes horseback riding lessons.

Thank you Felicia, for being such a responsible citizen.
