Jacqueline Pfeil is a 7th grader at St. Paul School. Jackie's demonstrations of responsibility, caring and trustworthiness come through in her daily activities. Jackie is a member of student council, a crossing guard captain and a member of the drama club. Jackie also is a goalie for the Firestone Park Goal Getters, Woodridge Premier Futbol Club and Our Lady of the Elms CYO teams. She plays volleyball for her school and fast-pitch softball for Portage Lakes Girls Fast Pitch Association. Last spring, she received the Bronze Award, the highest award given to a Junior Girl Scout. Jackie was nominated by her school principal and selected to be a member of the Coming Together Teen Board, which promotes cultural diversity. She also volunteers weekly at St Bernard's Church as an alter server. This summer, Jackie volunteered over 15 hours at St John's vacation bible school. Jackie does all of this while maintaining a 4.0 GPA.

Thank you Jacqueline, for being a responsible citizen in your community.

Jacqueline
