

A LOOK INSIDE THE SEIBERLINGS' MAJESTIC COUNTRY ESTATE

STAN HYWET HALL

Stan Hywet Hall is considered one of the finest examples of Tudor Revival architecture in America. The majestic 65-room country estate sits on 70 acres of artfully landscaped gardens and grounds.

Stan Hywet Hall (pronounced "stan hee-wit"; Old English for "stone quarry") was built by early industrialist and Goodyear co-founder F.A. Seiberling and his wife, Gertrude.

STAN HYWET FACTS

- Built: 1912-1915
- Length: 300 feet; the basement extends the length of the house
- Height:
  - Main structure: 3 stories
  - Music room: 2 stories
  - Tower: 4 stories
- Square footage: 64,500 – Manor House
- Materials: Red brick, steel, sandstone, Vermont slate, copper, oak and plaster. The interior woods include American oak, chestnut, black walnut, sandalwood, teak and rosewood.
- Bedrooms: 18
- Bathrooms: 25
- Fireplaces: 23

MAJOR ESTATE COMPARISONS

Compton Wynyates Location: Warwickshire, England Built: Between 1509 and 1528, additions in 1640s and 1732	Ockwells Manor Location: Berkshire, England Built: By Sir John Norreys, 1446-1466	Hadden Hall Location: Derbyshire, England Built: From the 12th to 17th centuries
---	--	---

Music room
Host to many extravagant parties, including a Shakespaerean Ball to celebrate the completion of the hall in 1915.

Doors
273 doors plus 20 sets of French doors

BASEMENT

FIRST FLOOR

SECOND FLOOR

ATTIC

F.A. Seiberling's office:
There are a lot of Abraham Lincoln artifacts here because Seiberling was a fan. A private entrance to the grounds allowed Seiberling to come and go without moving through the house.

Infirmary:
Where former U.S. Rep. John F. Seiberling, F.A.'s grandson and proponent of the Cuyahoga Valley National Park, was born. His mother, Henrietta, gave birth to two other children here as well. It was also common at the time to sequester someone who was ill.

Roof
Slate tiles are from Vermont

Chimneys
Stan Hywet has 12

