SHAEFFER: Did you hear anything or...

VINSON (mother): ...no...

VINSON: ...nuh-huh. No I...

SHAEFFER: Did you look out the window at all or...?

VINSON: Yeah.

SHAEFFER: What did you see when you looked out there?

VINSON: Guns, police's guns.

VINSON (mother): Don't give them no more information than that. You looked out the window and he said, "get back in the house," we seen they...

VINSON: ...I know, I know...I...

VINSON (mother): ...outside with their guns turned that's all...

VINSON: ...that's all I said...

VINSON (mother): ...but that's no...that's not...

VINSON: ...Mom...

VINSON (mother): ...but he don't...you didn't see anything out there, he gonna...

VINSON: ...just the car Mom dang.

VINSON (mother): That's a whole nother subject Beverly just...just stick to the...what you seen out there.

SHAEFFER: That's what I'm asking her did she see the car?

VINSON (mother): The...the gray car was out there record that so he know you seen the car out there.

VINSON: Okay then let me answer the question...

VINSON (mother): ...alright, alright.

VINSON: Yes oh...

SHAEFFER: ...do you know whose car that is?

VINSON (mother): No. See that's all I'm saying, this is a whole nother line of questioning that you just opened up a can of rope, you should have just stick to the question just...you don't know whose car, you don't know...see nothing, just the same thing he said. It's a tactic baby...

VINSON: ...so I seen the car, I don't know whose car it is Mom...
